

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY OF HADDONFIELD

THE PRESIDENT'S NEWSLETTER

July, 1977

Because we thought you would enjoy hearing the music of the Baroque Consort at our July picnic meeting, the date has been changed to Saturday, July 16th, at 4:30 p.m.

Many of you may recall with pleasure the delightful concert Harry (Skeets) Hartman and his two colleagues, Seth Weinstein and Dennis Gornby, gave a few years ago. Using ancient instruments - recorders, flute, bagpipes and the Krumm horn - the men played compositions ranging from the happy simplicity of folk music and early English ballads to the intricate harmonies of Handel or Bach. They will be our guests on July 16th.

I would like to share with you news of our newest gift - a clothes dummy from England. Known as the Victoria & Albert bust, it can be altered to represent any dimensions - from the current Miss America, Scarlett O'Hara or Mae West to the "ideal" figure of any era. Our versatile form is the gift of Miss Heather J. and Miss Edna Taylor, who brought "her" from London on their most recent trip early in June. Both ladies are themselves very much at home in the world of fashion as well as in the Victoria & Albert, and are most enthusiastic about the Society's costume collection.

A reminder - "Greenfield Hall" will be open from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. each Sunday during July and August. When you take your summer visitors on a tour of Haddonfield, why not include "Greenfield Hall?" With newly painted halls and rooms, handsome furnishings and the fragrant boxwood garden, it extends a gracious welcome.

Thank you - one and all - for your enthusiastic support of the Society and its programs. I look forward to greeting you at our July picnic - Saturday, July 16th.
